

STUDENT MISCONDUCT

 Misconduct as set out in section 2.1 of the Student Misconduct policy.

HOW DECISION MAKERS PROCEED:

INITIALLY...

You will receive a concern letter (a copy is sent to head of school).

SECONDLY...

You are given a timeframe to respond to the allegation (via email or in-person).

DECISION

Possible outcomes:

- Student is not guilty of misconduct.
- Decide student is guilty of misconduct and whether an order should be made.
- Refer the allegation to the student misconduct committee.

POSSIBLE ORDERS

(including, but not limited to)

- Reprimand the student.
- Impose a probationary enrolment, provisional on the student's good behaviour.
- Require the student to pay compensation to the University equal to the cost of restoring an item to the University or replacing it.
- Require the student to undertake campus service for a specified period.
- Suspend the student from accessing or using all or any specified University facilities or services for a specified period (not exceeding six months).
- Suspend the student from attending all or any specified classes for a specified period (not exceeding six months).
- Refuse or cancel credit for any course.

APPEALS

- A decision of a decision-maker.
- First instance decision of the student misconduct committee.
- An appellate decision of the student misconduct committee (where it is permanent exclusion from university).

PROCESS:

- Student must give notice of an appeal to the deputy vice chancellor within 20 working days of being given notice of the decision.